

THE OUTLOOK FOR WEEK IN CONGRESS

Brownsville Incident the Question of Interest in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 13.—Some of the time of the Senate and most of the time of the House during the present week will be devoted to the discussion of appropriation bills. The Senate will conclude its consideration of the legislative, executive and judiciary appropriation bill, and may reach the Indian bill. The House will finish its work on the fortifications bill, and will, in turn, take up the bill making appropriations for the District of Columbia and the diplomatic and consular service.

Before proceeding with appropriation bills the House will devote a day to miscellaneous bills in the interest of the District of Columbia, and Monday has been set aside for that purpose. It is also possible that the appropriation bill before the Senate will be temporarily displaced Monday by the Foraker resolutions providing for an investigation of the Brownsville riot. Senator Cullum, who has charge of the appropriation bill, announces his purpose not to yield the floor again until this measure is determined, and if he persists in his determination, consideration of the Brownsville matter will necessarily be deferred. The prospect of receiving Assistant Attorney General's report on the subject on Monday adds to what already holds a keen interest, and a large attendance may be expected in the Senate when it is under consideration. Speeches are yet to be made by Senators Spooner, Carmack and Stone, and it is not expected that Senator Foraker will permit the closing of the debate without further remarks.

The present prospect is for the practically unanimous adoption of a compromise resolution simply directing an investigation into the occurrence at Brownsville, and remaining silent on the legal phases of the question. In the Senate there will be an effort to incorporate a provision in the legislative appropriation bill increasing the salaries of Senators and Representatives from $5,000 to $7,500, and unless this proposition arouses debate, the legislative bill will probably be passed with but little discussion. There will also be an attempt to restore the House provision for an increase of the salaries of the Vice-President, the Speaker of the House and the members of the Cabinet. The fate of that proposition, however, will largely depend on the disposition of the twin provision for an increase in the salaries of members of Congress. Some of the members of the House Committee on Appropriations will try to secure the incorporation in the fortifications bill of an amendment looking to the creation of an island for the purpose of defense at the mouth of Chesapeake Bay, and appropriating for that purpose about $3,000,000, when the bill comes up in the House. General Keifer and Judge Walter Smith differed sharply over this point in committee, and it was expected that the Ohio member announced his determination to appeal to the House and his manner was such that those who heard him predict a very positive effort in that direction.

The House is looking forward with great expectancy to the decision of the Committee on Merchant Marine on the subject of the ship subsidy bill. The committee will report on Tuesday, and members say that the question will be finally decided on that day. It is now asserted by the advocates of compromise, that only the opposition of the supporters of the full Senate bill stands in the way of a report.

The Senate will probably return to the discussion of the Smoot case on Friday. Thursday will be devoted to eulogies in the Senate on the late Senator Bate, of Tennessee. He also will be eulogized in the House next Sunday.

An important national convention for the extension of foreign commerce will be held in Washington this week. President Roosevelt is expected to address the convention on Wednesday.

The trial of Gustav Simon, a shirt waist manufacturer, by whom she had been employed as a designer, will begin in New York next Thursday.

A plenary council of the French bishops to discuss the situation of the church in France has been summoned to meet January 15th in Paris.

It is expected that the bishops will simply register the Pope's decision, as expressed in the encyclical issued January 11th.

For Parsonage Fund.

Mr. Polk Miller and his quartet will give an entertainment on next Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the lecture room of Laurel Street Methodist Church, for the benefit of the parsonage fund.

Mr. Miller and his singers, who accompany him in entertainment, need no introduction to a Richmond audience, where they have delighted thousands. There will be a large and appreciative crowd out to hear them on Thursday night.

MISSION OPENS AT ST. MARK'S CHURCH

Noted Episcopal Evangelist Begins Series of Services in Richmond.

The Rev. William M. Jeffries, D. D., of the Episcopal diocese of New York, began last night a series of services at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, with the assistance of Rev. Thomas C. Darr, rector of the church. The mission will be continued throughout this week, with early service and communion at 8 A. M.; Bible reading at 1 P. M.; evening prayer and sermon at 8 o'clock daily. Dr. Jeffries is known as a man of fervent ability and St. Mark's is considered fortunate in securing his services. The series will, no doubt, be marked by a large attendance, not only of the members of St. Mark's, but from other churches in the city.

The Bible reading each afternoon will be found especially instructive to church workers and Sabbath school teachers.

Dr. Jeffries comes to Richmond from the South, having recently conducted a similar series of services at several points in Georgia. It is expected that many Richmond people will take advantage of the opportunity to hear one of the most noted evangelists of the Episcopal Church.

DR. SPERRY HERE.

Widely-Known Speaker Addresses Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

The fifth of the Y. M. C. A. series of Sunday afternoon meetings for men at the Academy of Music was addressed yesterday by Lyman Beecher Sperry, the subject being "Seven Social Evils." Dr. Sperry has before lectured in Richmond, and the pit of the Academy was well filled with men. Dr. Sperry is a forthright, straightforward speaker, and presented in plain language the evils of intemperance habits. Previous to the men's meeting Dr. Sperry talked to the boys under sixteen at the association building on "What a Boy Ought to Know."

Dr. Sperry will remain in Richmond throughout the week, speaking at the association building, Sunday and Monday, and twice at mixed audiences. The program for the week will be as follows: To-night at 8:30 o'clock, in association auditorium, men only, free, subject, "Weakness and Deceit vs. Manly Vigor." All men are cordially invited. Monday, January 17th, association gymnasium, 8:30 o'clock, "Avoidable Causes of Disease." For gymnasium men and men friends. Tuesday, January 18th, 8:30 P. M., association auditorium, "Aetna and Vexatious Wives." Free. Wednesday, January 19th, 8:30 P. M., association auditorium, "The Social Evil." Free. The auspices of the popular entertainment course.

AT TRINITY CHURCH.

Interesting Exercises Held by the Sunday-School.

The Sunday-school of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, showed a very good attendance, and enjoyed very entertaining exercises. As is customary at this time of year, the secretary, Mr. R. J. Christian, read the names of all officers, teachers and scholars, who had attended the sessions of the school for forty or more Sabbaths during the year. The report showed a very gratifying attendance. The pastor, Rev. W. R. Proctor, presided, and read a paper on "The Mystery and Secret of Preaching," from Gen. xxxii, 14. Mr. Proctor has just been appointed to Trinity Church, and is doing a fine work among the people of his congregation.

NO DECISION YET.

Dr. Evans Will Pay Visit to Birmingham Soon.

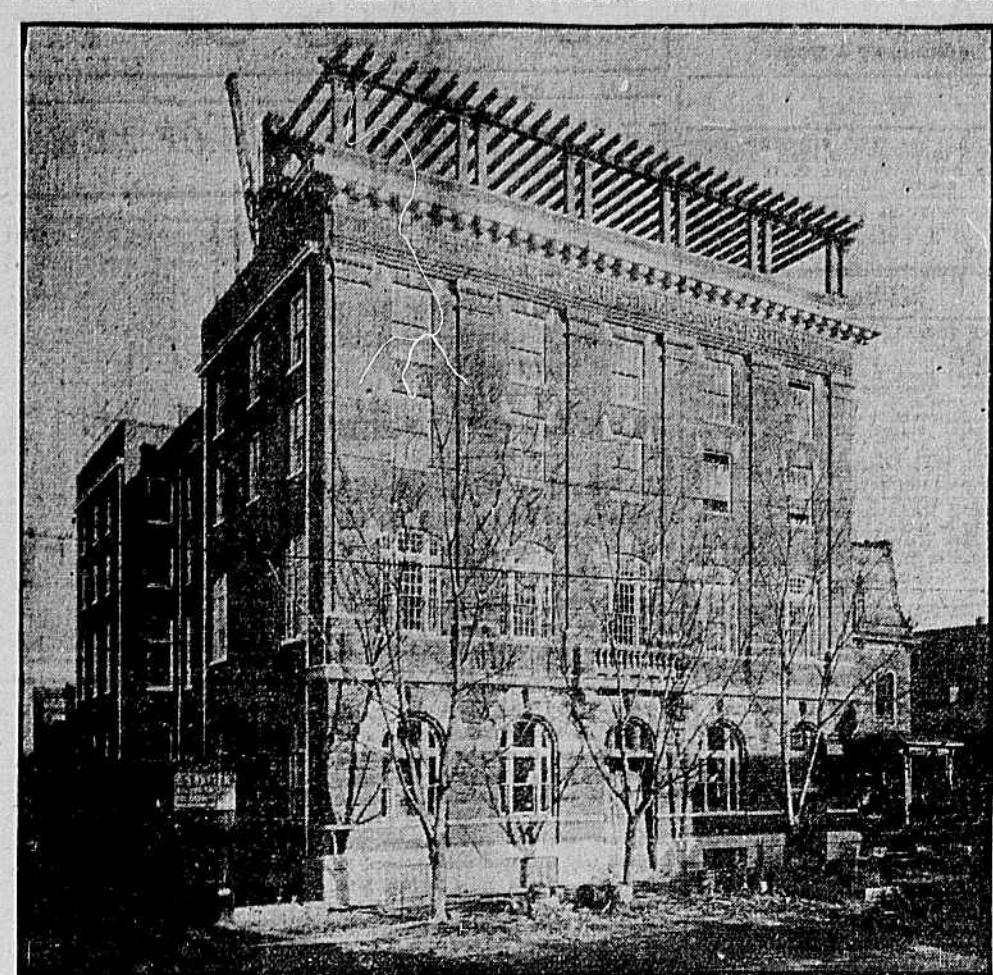

The congregation of Monumental Episcopal Church continue to express apprehension in the matter of losing their pastor, Rev. William E. Evans, D. D. Dr. Evans has come to no decision as yet as to his call, but will probably visit Birmingham shortly to look over the field, and may announce his decision while there.

Dr. Evans has been called has recently erected a handsome stone structure, and is the larger of the two Episcopal churches in that place, having over 900 members. In this connection it may not be generally known that Monumental, of which Dr. Evans is now rector, is the largest church in the diocese of Virginia, numerically, having about 550 communicants.

At Laurel Street.

The Rev. D. G. C. Butts, pastor of Laurel Street Methodist Church, occupied his pulpit at both services yesterday, preaching two fine sermons. Despite the inclement weather, large congregations were present. Although Mr. Butts has been with this congregation only about two months, most of the time of which he has been sick, he has been eminently successful. His congregations are increasing, and the dinner and the sermon he is preaching are greatly enjoyed. Just now the membership is being thoroughly organized for the general work of the church, and the indications point to a successful year. An effort is being made to call on him as the parsonage, and Mr. Butts anticipates paying off the same within the next sixty days.

FINE NEW Y. M. C. A. BUILDING IN LYNCHBURG.

The residents of Lynchburg, Va., made a new record in the amount they raised, in comparison with the population of that place. There are, approximately, 24,000 people in Lynchburg, and the total obtained for building, lot and furnishings was $26,000, of which $10,000 was for furnishings. This means over $3 per capita, while in Richmond only $2 per head is asked.

WHIRLWIND CAMPAIGN IS ON

Work for Y. M. C. A. New Building Fund Begins in Earnest To-day—Banquet To-Night at Murphy's—Other Matters.

Interest in the Young Men's Christian Association campaign for a new building, costing $200,000, is growing. The great illuminated clock which is to indicate the results of the canvass will be placed in position in front of the Shafter Building, at Tenth and Main Streets, this morning, and it is thought that the big hand will be started at not less than one-quarter of the way around. The citizens' committee will meet at headquarters at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, and after this meeting exact figures of the results of the canvass to date will be announced.

Oscar Gullett, a small newsboy, who sells afternoon papers at Tenth and Main Streets, will sell from 2 to 5 P. M. to-day, the proceeds going to the $200,000 fund. This youngster proposes to give not only his profits, but the whole receipts of his day's business.

Letter Received.

Secretary McKee received the following letter from an old member of the Richmond Association yesterday:

The Newton, Washington, D. C.
My Dear "Mac"—It fills my heart with joy as I read the daily report of the Y. M. C. A. building campaign in The Times-Dispatch, and as I am taken, though very small, and of my high appreciation of what the association did for me as a young man just from the country and coming to your city. I am, in fact, I think, the only one of home in a large degree. I think beyond a doubt that the Y. M. C. A. has done more to build up the best assets of Richmond, her boys and young men, than any one thing. Please allow me the privilege and pleasure of giving $10. Wish I could make it ten thousand. May God richly bless you and all who are helping in this noble work, is the prayer of yours, in His name.

W. LEAKE WINGFIELD.

January 10, 1907.

How I long to be there to take an active part with you and the other boys.

The dinner to the members of the young business men's committee will be held this evening at Murphy's Hotel Annex. Dinner will be served promptly at 7, and business dress will be the acceptable program, as it is to be a business occasion, looking to a busy campaign. Mr. Nell D. Sills, chairman, will preside, and the dinner will afford a social occasion for the workers to meet each other as well as to come into touch with Mr. Ward, of the International Y. M. C. A. Speeches will be made by several members of the citizens' committee and directors of the association, as well as by some of the subcommittee of the young business men's committee. From the meeting of the citizens' committee to-day and the supper of the young business men to-night the campaign may be said to be fairly on. No one need wait, however, for the campaign to call on him, as the headquarters are centrally located, and Assistant Secretary Buchanan will always be willing to accommodate any one by receiving a subscription.

Independent Work.

A new line of campaign is being planned by the members of the association themselves. Assistant Secretaries French and Buchanan are planning to get the membership of the association in line for some independent canvassing, that may make the young business men's committee work hard to maintain its lead.

Mr. J. Harry Tregal, who acted as chairman of the young business men's committee in the recent Baltimore campaign, has been asked to come down for the banquet to-night. When approached over the long distance phone in regard to the matter, Mr. Tregal could not say positively that he could come, but it is hoped, however, that he will be present. His enthusiastic leadership was one of the features of the Baltimore campaign, and it was felt that a few words from him would start the Richmond young business men off in the feather.

Mr. C. B. Ward, who is directing the campaign, occupies a unique position in the Y. M. C. A. He is one of the international secretaries who supervise association work in North American, his relation to the association being exactly the same as that of Mr. Fred B. Smith, who has spoken in Richmond, the difference being that Mr. Ward pushes the association work along different lines, his special adaptation being in financial work. But while helping associations in various parts of the country to secure buildings, Mr. Ward has developed a plan, called the "short-term" plan, which has proven more successful by uniting the association forces of a city for a limited time. In this way Mr. Ward has been authorized by the international committee to give all of his time to this one line of effort, with the result that during the past year he has raised something over $200,000. He receives only the regular salary of the international secretary.

A pamphlet showing the progress of the Richmond association and the urgent need of larger facilities is being prepared, and will be issued to-day. Other literature will be circulated from time to time as occasion may require.

A special letter read with the names of the principal executive officers directing the campaign is in use at headquarters.

How They Got It.

The perseverance of the local officers and workers of the Y. M. C. A. and the friendly attitude of the United States government toward the association through its officials were indicated by the efforts made to secure the Shafter Building as headquarters during the campaign to raise the $200,000 for the new building. Weeks ago, when it was anticipated that the time for the beginning of the movement was not far distant, Mr. S. K. McKee, the general secretary of the Richmond association, began looking around for a suitable location, where the energies of the campaign should be concentrated. First of all was required a building centrally located. That was not a difficult matter to decide, but McKee exercised foresight and wanted an environment that would in itself be an assistance in the campaign. It did not take him long to see an ideal position on the first floor of the Shafter Building, which, with its plate glass front, would invite investigation from passing pedestrians, who would note the unwelcome activity inside of what had been an unoccupied structure.

However, the building has been purchased by the United States government, but recently, and Uncle Sam is very slow to grant any special privileges to organizations, as well as to individuals, especially without the exercise of patience and more or less of necessary red tape.

McKee first approached the custodian, Mr. Jos. B. Stewart, and started the machinery that would lead to Washington. After earnest effort he was informed that the building could not be secured for the purposes desired. Mr. Stewart was required by the government to occupy the building as the place now occupied by him was wanted for the Judge of the United States Court. The interest of the association workers became more intense as the difficulties increased. A committee, composed of Messrs. Frank T. Sutton, Jas. W. Gordon, C. S. Ward and S. K. McKee, waited on Mr. Stewart and the United States Judges, and arranged to have the matter again taken up at Washington. Hon. Edmund Vaddell, Jr., one of the judges, wished to assist the committee, every way possible, and wrote a strong letter to Secretary Shaw, of the President's Cabinet, favoring the granting the use of the building to the association. This letter was supplemented by others from Mayor McCarthy, Mr. John P. Branch, president of the Merchants' National Bank; Mr. Oliver J. Sands, president of the American National Bank; Mr. W. M. Habliston, president of the National Bank of Virginia; Mr. John B. Purcell, president of the First National Bank, and Postmaster Roy E. Cabell. When it was announced in the daily papers that the efforts of the business men interested had been of no avail, the "wires" between Richmond and Washington became hot and the services of Senator Thos. Martin and Congressman John Lamb were requisitioned. Also the long-distance telephone to Washington was pressed into service. Secretary Shaw was interviewed one night at 10 o'clock, as the word "no" would not be considered, and the result was that the use of the Shafter building was granted to the association for the period required.

This success is but another illustration of the good favor in which the Y. M. C. A. stands with government officers. President Roosevelt and a number of his principal advisers have from time to time expressed the highest regard for the work of the association in building up a Christian manhood, and their utterances have been strongly worded. The government has provided transportation at various times to association officers, and has assisted in many ways the efforts of the association officers to improve conditions where large groups of men are gathered together in the service of the government.

This is strikingly illustrated in the recently published statement that the United States Government would co-operate with the International Y. M. C. A. in erecting and maintaining buildings for men at various points along the route of the Panama Canal.

MADE RAVING MANIAC BY ELECTRIC CURRENT

BANGOR, PA., January 13.—E. M. Miller, a conductor of the State Belt railroad, was so badly shocked by electricity that he is a raving maniac. His recovery is doubtful, and he will be removed to a sanitarium in an endeavor to improve his condition.

TAKING OF GIRL SLAVES MARKED BY BUTCHERY

Horrors of Traffic in Tropoli to Supply Turkey Market Are Told.

CONSTANTINOPLE, January 13.—Advices from Tripoli depict the horrors of the slave traffic between Turkey and Tripoli. It is openly asserted that it is exclusively as a source of supply that the Porte cares to maintain the connection between Tripoli and Turkey at all.

In the regions of Nadai, Baghirmi, Gehra and adjacent countries slave raiding is marked with all the hideous barbaries with which Europe was familiarized twenty years ago, and is openly carried on by Arabs and Turks solely for the supply of the Turkish market.

In these raids the adult population is mercilessly butchered, both men and women. Girls in particular, and also boys, are wanted. The miseries they endure in the long march to the Tripoli coast are said to be indescribable. Turkish ships make monthly trips, and always sail by night with their human cargo.

The price of a girl between eight and twenty is from $20 upward.

GIGANTIC ANTI-CLERICAL DEMONSTRATION AT BILBAO

MADRID, January 13.—There was a gigantic anti-clerical demonstration at Bilbao to-day, which was attended by some rioting. The government's energetic precaution in holding the garrison in readiness prevented serious disturbances.

SPANISH MINISTRY WILL NOT LAST OUT THE WEEK

MADRID, January 13.—Indications are that the ministry will not last out the week, as the efforts for conciliation by the moderate and advanced sections of the Liberals have been unsuccessful. ## MISTAKES BRIDAL PAIR FOR MOTHER AND SON

Marriage License Clerk Surprised by Farmer, 24, and Widow, 53.

READING, PA., January 13.—Among the marriage licenses granted to-day was that of James L. Klapp to wed Lizzie A. Trivitz. Klapp is a farmer, twenty-four years old. His bride is a widow, fifty-three years old. The clerk who issued the license mistook the smiling pair for mother and son.

Klapp lives with his father, Cyrus Klapp, on a farm between Shartlesville and Scull Hill. Mrs. Trivitz is the widow of Joel Trivitz, and was a neighbor of the Klapps until several years ago, when her husband died, and she went to her former home at Newberry. Recently she returned to visit neighbors in Upper Bern, and the pair decided to become man and wife.

Young Klapp looks even younger than he is.

Girl in Teens Extracts Promise of Man Eighty Years Old Before Eloping.

SHERIDAN, MONT., January 13.—Miss Mattie Collier, who is still in her teens, ran away from her home a few days ago, and it transpires she ran away to become the wife of Abraham Seelye, a man more than eighty years old, who had already been married three times.

Before she promised to love, honor and obey her old lover, Miss Collier required him to sign an agreement to the effect that he should die before he does, he would not wed another woman. Seelye objected to signing this agreement, but when his sweetheart told him that she would not marry him unless he did, he capitulated.

Miss Collier's father is a miner and strenuously objected to Seelye's courting his daughter. Seelye persisted in his wooing and arranged the marriage without her father's knowledge.

In a report of the recent annual meeting of Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, mention was made of a committee named to select a prize for Mr. Thomas A. Reddin, who secured the largest number of new members during the past year. This was a mistake. The honor went to Mr. M. J. O'Donnell and not to Mr. Reddin. Mr. Frank L.
